Contractor Asks License Fee Be Cut By Trustees

Reeve Says $100 a Year Too High; Board To Investigate

Robert Reeve, Torrance contractor, appeared before the Board of Trustees Monday night to lodge objection to the license fee which general contractors must pay in Torrance.

"Building here now," said Mr. Reeve, "does not warrant a license fee of $100 a year. That is a larger fee than is paid in most cities of this size in Southern California."

Trustee Fitzhugh pointed out that when the fee was fixed a number of contractors asked for a high fee "to keep out tramp and bootlegger contractors." He said that the fee was set lower than some of the contractors asked.

The board instructed Building Inspector O. W. Hobson to investigate fees in other cities and asked Mr. Reeve to call a meeting of contractors to decide what they believe the fee should be.

W. T. Kussman facetiously called attention to the fact that Trustee Fitzhugh had characterized contractors as "bootleggers."

Mr. Fitzhugh replied: "No, you got me wrong. I called some contractors bootleggers, but I didn't say that bootleggers were contractors. That leaves these gentlemen out."

High School First Annual This Year

This year Torrance High School is to have its first annual. It will be called The Torch, as the torch has been officially designated the emblem of Torrance High School. Miss Burnham is the faculty advisor, and Ruth Lingenfelter editor-in-chief. The staff consists of a group of students from both the junior and senior high schools.

Any of the alumni or friends wishing to subscribe are requested to call Ruth Lingenfelter at 1415 Amapola, phone 226-W, or Miss Burnham at the high school, phone 36-J.

Zone Change Result Affects Cabrillo

J. R. Winters objected before the Board of Trustees Monday night that a frame building under construction at Cabrillo avenue and 220th street is being erected almost up to the property line, while buildings put up previously in the same district were set back in accordance with the zoning regulations.

City Engineer J. J. Jessup explained that the set-back regulations prevailed when the property was zoned for residence purposes; that it was taken out of the residence zone and put into the business district but not in the fire zone at the request of a large number of property owners in the district. "The apparent injustice of which Mr. Winters now complains," said Mr. Jessup, "is the inevitable result of changing a zone."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewellen attended a party Saturday given by friends in Lynwood.

Effective Treatment Seen in New Gland Discovery

Scientists of international prominence declare that the vital glands of young animals have remarkable power for renewing vitality, toning up the entire system and building up nerve force.

By new discovery these glands are now scientifically prepared in convenient, compact tablet form for internal use. This preparation is known as Glandogen, prepared from the vital glands of healthy young animals.

People who have taken Glandogen only a few days have written letters telling of results that seem astonishing. Accept no substitute. Insist on genuine Glandogen, the original gland tonic.

TOWNE ALKE

"Just for Fun"

By RAS BERRY

Dick Richards, who is also a bachelor, he says these fashions for women today is okay only they make it difficult for a guy to figure out which one is the chaperon.

Gene DeBra who never misses a chance to advertise his business opines as how a radio is at least a sound investment.

The barbers at Bonds was setting out in front as per usual and a plumbing company's big car drove up all fitted out with fixtures inside and Al says that is what we should ought to have so we could get in it and go from town to town shaving and cutting hair and we could call ourselves the galloping barbers and I says O. K. and if you will get a outfit like that why the rest of us will chip in to help you pay for it so as we can walk along Marcelina st. without having wise cracks shot at us.

They could go around the world in a big traveling barber shop like that opines Al Gourdiar, only they would probably starve to death when they get to Russia.

The bus mgr. says he has concluded after long observations among married folks that some couples could make up if they could remember what they started quarreling about.

They was a heavy of the boys here in Torrance that buys some lots from some agent way up north of no-where in Calif. and these here lots was supposed to be near some lake or other and about a week or so ago one of the lads whose name is Harvel Guttenfelder he writes up to the assessor of the county in which said lots is located and he wants to know what the taxes is on them lots and the assessor writes back this week saying that them lots is considered worthless and so they ain't assessed at anything. Among the owners of this here valuable property is Verne Babcock and Bob Delinger.

The boys has got this satisfaction. They enjoy the distinction of owning some property without having to pay no taxes.

Now that they has passed a ordinance against stray animals running around places throughout this town, why it is now legal for the police dept. to get your goat.

Coming back to that there big truck with all the plumbing supplies in it that was in Torrance Monday why Fay Parks he says they is no truth to the statement that the reason the mfrs. of the plumbing supplies is named Crane is because all plumbers bills is inclined to be long.

If that there truck had of been here on Saturday night, says Russell Smith, why I would of took a bath.

It seems reasonable now in view of recent health conditions and the liberty-obtaining activities at the Los Angeles county lockup to suggest that they change the name of that there calaboose to the Small-pox Jail and adopt a motto for it, said motto to be "They All Break Out." Does anybody 2nd. the motion?

Average Sale at Palos Verdes Is $10,000—Lawyer

Wealthy Easterners Heavy Buyers at Hill and Seaside Project

Visitors in Southern California this year represent the wealthiest class of easterners who ever sojourned here, according to Don K. Lawyer, sales manager of the Palos Verdes Estates, and they are buying heavily at this high class seaside home community.

"In looking over our sales records for the last three months," said Mr. Lawyer yesterday, "I find that our average sale is above $10,000. When it is remembered that we still have a few Palos Verdes home-sites left for as little as $2000, this condition indicates that the large class of buyers of California real estate at the present time are wealthy people."

"Our records also disclose that many of our largest sales are made by easterners. Practically every state in the union is represented on our sales sheets for the last three months."

"The reason Palos Verdes Estates appeals so strongly to easterners is that they find here all of the things they expected to find in California. The average person from the east or middle west wants to see the ocean as soon as he gets to California, and he is therefore not content to settle inland, whence he must drive for several hours to get to the water's edge. Palos Verdes is directly above the sea and the water can be reached in a few minutes walk."

"Pure air, sunshine, green hills—all of these typical California qualities are found at their best at Palos Verdes Estates. And the man-made facilities for enjoyment cannot be surpassed. The Palos Verdes golf course is recognized as one of the sportiest in the world. There are tennis and miles of bridle trails. Nature is found at its best. Palos Verdes Estates is the ideal place for true enjoyment of California."
